

ASD-2010 Annual Convention Social Programme

In the proposals hereunder, prices are in Swiss Francs and the bracketed Euro values are indicative. To provide the largest flexibility regarding meals, we will provide vouchers allowing each participant to make his/her choice from the regular menu and pay for whatever extras separately (Credit Card accepted).

Visiting the Castle is like going back in time! Each room reveals a part of its history. Fondation Pierre Gianadda, exposition Dubuffet (1993)

Moore, Reclining Figure

While he was planning to construct a rental apartment building on a plot of land that he owned, Léonard Gianadda, an engineer, discovered in the spring of 1976 the vestiges of a Gallo-Roman temple, the oldest of its kind in Switzerland.

Shortly afterwards, on 31 July 1976, his younger brother, Pierre, died tragically in the aftermath of an airplane crash while seeking help for his fellow survivors. Léonard, who was very attached to Pierre, decided to create a foundation to perpetuate his memory. Around the antique temple, he erected a cultural centre bearing the name of his deceased brother. It was inaugurated on 19 November 1978, the very day on which Pierre would have celebrated his 40th birthday.

The Gianadda museum house, among others, a permanent collection of old cars, a unique Chagall mosaic, Gallo-roman objects and a park of sculptures.
